of the Mounted District an exciting chase for five miles, gored a horse owned by Attorney General Crow yesterday morning, rammed its horns against the side of a Missouri mule, and aroused the martial spirit of "Tony" Stuever, millionaire brewer, "original" Folk man and Democratic leader in South St. Louis.

The wild steer began its rampage near the home of Attorney General Crow at No. 649 Magnolia avenue, started on a run down Magnolia avenue, followed by Acting Sergeant Riley and Mounted Patrolinen Buckley and Billing, gored a horse belonging to the Attorney General because a man named Allen, who was riding the animal, joined in the chase, rammed a mule belonging to a farmer, whose name was not given to the police, and then invaded Tower Grove Park.

Tony Stuever, who lives at No. 4621 Magnolia avenue, joined in the chase and fired a revolver at the maddened animal, but the builet went wild.

The mounted policemen prevented the steer from doing any damage to the park and also from running over anyone, and finally cornered it on the Arsenal street side. The animal leaped the fence and ran to Broadway and Osceola street, where it was killed. The wild steer began its rampage near

The display of imported gowns as well as those of domestic production, is one of the finest any store ever has attempted. As a usual thing imported gowns are over-timmed and "stagey" with too much gitter and tinsel. Those at Nugent's are not in this class.

Creations from Redfern, Beer, Callot-Seeurs, Paquin, Perdoux, Worth, Drecoil, Boucet and David, Intended either for sireet or other use, are shown in the rooms on the second floor.

With the passing of each season Nugent's is fast taking leadership in the St. Louis millinery trade and this year promises to achieve even greater reputation. In colors the style seems to be burnt orange, burnt onion, maltogany and bronze green. Plumes and paradise, dahlias and grapes with pienty of lace provide the trimmings. Crowns are high and some fur is seen on the winter creations. Among the hats that promise to be popular this season. Nugent's is showing a Charlotte Corday effect. INDIAN TERRITORY, effect.

As for new silks and dress goods, it is only necessary to say that Nugent's have, as in former seasons, new and exclusive ideas, which are the pick of the products of manufacturers of the highest reputation.

Proria, Ill., Sept. 7.—The old settlers of Central Illinois met in reunion at Glen Oak Park to-day. Ten thousand persons were present. Addresses were delivered by Eugene F. existence. The bonds were to be gain and tend by the United Railways Company, of which the Transit Company is in a measure a subsidiary organization.

Notice of the purpose to restrict the issue to $12,500,000 was made public last month, and the repetition of the notice is but a formal procedure required.

However, since the last notice it is stated that arrangements have been made by which the Transit Company will issue only $10,000,000 bonds, as the cost of the proposed improvements have not been as great as estimated and the colateral ions coming due in November for $5,000,000 can be retired from the difference between the cost of the improvements and the total of the bonds, which it is believed will, under the existing market conditions, bring a good price. Brown Brothers of New York have done much toward financing the Transit Company, and have disposed of some of the bonds, though arrangements with the purchasers can be made on the new basis. Another feature which it is believed will be considered is that in all probability the Transit Company will be able to who out its deficits this year by its net earnings.

The feature of to-day's events at the World's Fair will be Achille Phillon and his wonderful spiral tower. Phillon will give two performances, one at 129 and the other at 7 p. m., absolutely free, near the entrance to the Pike. Pike Day parade of all nations at 12 m.
